

Australian Applied Management Colloquium

Scholarships for employees in
Transport and Logistics

Application Form

The Australian Applied Management Colloquium sets a new benchmark for the provision of practice-based, outcome-driven management development education. The Colloquium is guided by input from major employers and employer groups throughout Australia.

The program is supported by dedicated industry research and is informed by a National Advisory Board. The program responds to a recognised need to increase the quality of Australian management by promoting and enhancing the critical skills involved in managing others.

● ● ● Applicant Details

Name: _____

Position: _____

Organisation: _____

Email address: _____

Telephone number: _____

Workplace address: _____

Eligibility

Eligibility is at the discretion of the Scholarship Program Committee and is assessed on the basis of information supplied in this application form. Further, applicants must be Australian residents or intend working in Australia for a 24 month period from the date that this application is submitted. Also applicants must have been employed by an organisation whose primary activities are based in Australia for at least the past 12 months.

Are you an Australian resident? Yes No

*Non Australian residents that wish to discuss their candidacy for scholarship funding are encouraged to contact ASAM on (03) 9270 9000.

I have worked in the industry for longer than 12 months Yes No

Applicant Signature: _____ Date: _____

● ● ● Direct Manager Details

Name: _____

Position: _____

Email address: _____

Telephone number: _____

Direct Manager Endorsement

By signing this application, I hereby endorse the above named applicant's worthiness and commitment to participating in the Australian Applied Management Colloquium. Further, should the scholarship applicant be successful, I confirm that my organisation will support the applicant throughout the program.

Direct Manager Signature: _____ Date: _____

About the Scholarships

Scholarships are designed to provide financial support employees working in Australia.

This initiative is part of the broader Colloquium Scholarship Program which is the result of the Australian School of Applied Management and Workplace Training Advisory of Australia's commitment to supporting the advancement of management capability in Australia. The Colloquium Scholarship Program includes a commitment to provide financial assistance to at least 15% of Colloquium participants nationally.

The scholarships will assist the important process of generating a broad representation of participants from diverse industries and locations.

Financial Support

Scholarship recipients are awarded a subsidy of up to $7,900. This brings the program fees down from $13,800 to $5,900.

1. Please describe an experience in which you have been inspired by a manager in the workplace. What aspects of this person's management style do you most wish to adopt?

2. What aspects of working in your industry appeal to you most?

3. Research shows that many managers struggle with the interpersonal and communication aspects of leading others. Please describe your own communication strengths and weaknesses.

4. Please explain how you hope to benefit from participating in the Australian Applied Management Colloquium.

5. Please explain how you hope your participation in the Australian Applied Management Colloquium will benefit your team and your organisation.

6. Please provide any further comments that you feel may support your scholarship application.

RETURN TO Australian School of Applied Management
EMAIL: scholarships@asam.edu.au
FAX: 1300 451 031

You will be notified within 14 days of the outcome of your application.

Enquiries

The Colloquium Scholarship Program is managed by the Australian School of Applied Management and Workplace Training Advisory of Australia. Please direct all enquiries to the colloquium team.

Phone: 1300 138 037
Email: scholarships@asam.edu.au