MEMBERSHIP AND PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE... EXTEND YOUR VISION...

The Australian Association for Supply Chain & Logistics Professionals & Practitioners
A career in Supply Chain and Logistics in Australia, now more than ever, knows no limits. With the right knowledge, attitude and skills, Supply Chain and Logistics professionals and practitioners have no career ceiling. However, it is competitive out there. More and more employers rightly expect professionalism. Professions have a number of common attributes.

These include a commitment to on-going education, compliance with a code of conduct, performance consistent with a generally agreed body of knowledge or set of rules and Membership of a professional body. The Supply Chain and Logistics Association of Australia (SCLAA) is Australia’s largest association for Supply Chain and Logistics professionals and practitioners. The SCLAA has the proven history, governance framework, established representation, value for money and strategic reach to make it the right choice for you.

OUR VISION

The SCLAA is the Association of choice for the advancement of Supply Chain and Logistics in Australia - Driving Professional Advantage in Supply Chain and Logistics.

OUR MISSION

To serve and advance the interests of Supply Chain and Logistics professionals and practitioners in Australia.

GOVERNANCE

The SCLAA is the truly independent Australian Supply Chain and Logistics association run by Members, for Members. The SCLAA is a registered company, limited by guarantee with an experienced Board of Directors and is proud that its activities are conducted nationally and via State divisions, in accordance with the wishes of its Members.

The SCLAA constitution enshrines:

- The democratic vote of Members as the ultimate authority, and
- The opportunity for practical and determinative Member participation in Association affairs.

It is a true Member based not-for-profit association whose proceeds are channelled into Member benefits. Given this, the SCLAA:

- Offers a strong advocacy of the highest standards to develop the profession;
- Contributes to Australia’s excellence in Supply Chain, Transportation and Logistics;
- Contributes to the development of the capital, human and intellectual infrastructure necessary to ensure that Australia is internationally competitive in all aspects of Supply Chain and Logistics;
- Enhances the opportunity to achieve career advancement and enhanced credibility through access to the latest information and networking with fellow professionals and practitioners.
MEMBER BENEFITS

The SCLAA is always seeking additional ways to benefit our members and we actively encourage all members to participate and provide feedback and new ideas that benefit both members and the Supply Chain & Logistics industry. All associations and professions have a number of common attributes. These include a commitment to on-going education, compliance with a code of conduct, performance consistent with a generally agreed body of knowledge or set of rules and membership of a professional body.

- Opportunities for continuing education and development;
- Advocacy of the Association;
- Sharing ideas and knowledge with fellow professionals;
- Discounts to SCLAA events;
- Opportunity to submit to, and be part of, Australia’s most prestigious Supply Chain & Logistics Awards.

DIVISIONAL COMMITTEES

As a financial member of the association, you can apply to become a committee member and support the growth and development of the profession. Every committee has a Division President, secretary, treasurer, and representatives for membership, education, awards, social events and regional development. There are also sub-committees working on projects such as Women in Logistics, Mentoring, career development, Future Leaders and school-based training. Membership of a committee is a useful way of developing your personal knowledge and skills while contributing to the expansion of the profession and the wider industry.

AFFILIATIONS

Members have the opportunity to be involved in events and information sharing with the SCLAA’s many affiliates. The SCLAA has current affiliations with the following international associations Asian-Pacific Logistics Federation (APLF), Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP), Supply Chain Management Association-Canada (SCMA), China International Logistics and Transportation Fair (CILF), Global Supply Chain Council (GSCC), Vietnam Supply Chain (VSC) and Supply Chain Council (SCC).
AUSTRALIAN SUPPLY CHAIN & LOGISTICS AWARDS

The SCLAA has been running the Australian and Supply Chain & Logistics Awards for over fifty years, making them the most prestigious and influential in the Supply Chain, Logistics and Transport industries. This is a not-to-be-missed event in the industry calendar. Nominate yourself, your company or a colleague and be recognised by your peers in this historic award program.

FUTURE LEADERS GROUP

The SCLAA fosters involvement through specialised focus groups such as the Future Leaders Group. If you are looking to build your knowledge and career then the SCLAA Future Leaders Group can work for you. The SCLAA Future Leaders Group (FLG) supports young Supply Chain & Logistics professionals & practitioners 25 years of age and under by providing networking and education opportunities relevant to career development. This is part of the SCLAA’s continued commitment to increase and improve overall Supply Chain excellence through education, as well as through practical and appropriate involvement.

MENTORING PROGRAM

The SCLAA runs an annual Mentoring Program so if you are looking to partner with someone so that you can improve your self-confidence; expand your professional network; identify areas of opportunity within your career and how to take advantage of these, then the Mentoring Program could be just what you are looking for. Each year the SCLAA looks for Mentees who are committed to developing themselves within the Supply Chain, Transport and Logistics industry. Similarly, if you are an experienced member of the Industry who is looking to ‘give back’ some of your knowledge and are committed to helping further individuals in the industry, then you can become a mentor within this program.

CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL LOGISTICIAN

The CPL is a professional qualification that aims to provide the definitive standard for measuring capability and professionalism within the supply chain and logistics profession worldwide. CPL status attests to your professional recognition by peers and employers, of your significant experience and knowledge to implementation, management and improved logistics initiatives. The CPL credential is recognised across Asia Pacific through the Asia Pacific Logistics Federation.

CPL accreditation supports your career by confirming:
✓ Independent assessment of professional capability.
✓ Employers can be confident that you have met a recognised industry benchmark.
✓ Certification is renewed every 3 years, proving your continued industry development.
